MRS. MEADOWS FALLS VICTIM TO FULTON SCANDAL

Woman's Husband Charged Preacher With Alienating Her Affections.

Believed That Young Man of Clinton Was Murdered.

OBION COUNTY MAN WARNED

Fulton, Ky., April 21.—After an illness extending over a period of more than a year, Mrs. Linnie Meadows, wife of W. W. Meadows, of this city, breathed her last in St. Luke's hospital at St. Louis, where she had been a patient since leaving Fulton last summer. Her father, A. T. Mitchell, was at her bedside at death. The attending physicians of that institution say that the disease, softening of the brain, which resulted in death this morning, had been preying upon her for a number of years. The message bearing the sad tidings was received by Mr. Meadows this morning who left for St. Louis on the first train, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mary.

The remains will be sent to North Middletown, Ky., for interment, as the deceased had a number of times expressed a desire to be buried there.

Mrs. Meadows will be remembered as the woman in the Meadows-Hawley case, in which the husband accused the Rev. Frank Hawley of alienating Mrs. Meadows' affections. Counter suits for $100,000 damages were entered and compromised. The scandal is considered responsible for Mrs. Meadows' death.

Tom White Not Found.

Clinton, Ky., April 21.—Tom White, the young man who mysteriously disappeared in Hickman county ten days ago, leaving his young wife and child in their pretty country home between Crutcherfield and Clinton, has not been located yet and all search for the missing man has been in vain. His wife and relatives now fear that he has been murdered and his body hidden. It is well known that he had quite a sum of money on his person the morning he disappeared. The day before he sold a fine pair of mules to Woodford Ringo and Tom Drewry, at Clinton, for which he received $400. It is understood that he was to deposit the money with another large sum at Moscow the next day, and it was between his home and Moscow that it is believed he met with foul play. Mr. White, father of the young man, who is a wealthy farmer, residing near Cayce, in Fulton county, will not give up the search and he will be assisted by Dave Brown, the father of the young man's wife, as well as others who are interested. Tow White is one of the most popular young men of Hickman county and his mysterious disappearance has created quite an excitement.

Burdick Quits Business.

Union City, April 21.—J. C. Burdick, of Union City, one of the oldest and most prominent merchants of Obion county, received a letter signed "night riders," warning him to close out his business and leave the community at once. Mr. Burdick, through an agreement with J. C. Harris, owner of Reelfoot lake, has had a monopoly on the fish output since the last ruling of the legislature, and the fishermen becoming incensed at being forced to accept Burdick's prices for their fish, adopted the methods of the "night riders" and after destroying several fish docks on the lake, are seeking vindication in the destruction of the property of Mr. Burdick. We learn from a reliable source that Burdick will sell out and quit the business.

Burglary at Bardwell.

Fulton, Ky., April 21.—A telephone message was received from Bardwell last night by Chief Baker requesting him to look out for burglars who broke into the Bardwell Hardware company's store and stole about 22 razors and 27 fine pocket knives; the only trace left was a black derby hat size 7 1/4, and a white felt hat was taken from the store. The pocket knives are stamped on the blades "Bardwell Hardware Co.," and razors bearing the "Keen Kutter" brand made by the Simmons Hardware Co.

BRYAN AND HARMON

Cincinnati, April 21.—Bryan has chosen Judson Harmon as his running mate on the presidential ticket, according to Harmon's friends. Moreover, he promised Harmon if the Democratic ticket is elected he will ask congress to make the vice-president ex-officio a cabinet member.

Murray Harris is Caught at Home by Constable Clint Drinkard, Who Has Been Chasing Calloway Riders.

Judge Wells Appears at Louisville, But He Declines to be Interviewed on Subject by Newspaper Men.

Louisville, Ky., April 21.—(Special.)—County Judge Wells, of Calloway county, is here. He refuses to talk of the situation except to say he believes the backbone of the night riders is broken. He is not going to Frankfort and has not seen the governor.

The Cincinnati Enquirer this morning said Judge Wells was fleeing from night riders and this increased him.

Murray, Ky., April 21.—(Special.)—Murray Harris is in the custody of the county officials again and will testify before the grand jury against the night rider bands on the west side of the county. Harris is the young man who confessed and implicated other members of the band, which has been operating around Kirksey. Afterwards the night riders made such bold threats that his own family drove him into exile to protect his life and theirs. His capture was effected by Constable Clint Drinkard, the brave officer, whose store was burned, and around whose house a man was seen recently lurking with a rifle. Drinkard has devoted his time since the burning of his store to running down the night riders in his neighborhood. He brought Harris into town this morning. Harris' testimony was absolutely necessary in the chain of evidence against the Kirksey night riders. He will not be allowed out of the surveillance of the officers, and he will be protected by a guard.

Kelsie Kirk Captured.

Murray, Ky., April 21.—(Special.)—The arrest last night of Kelsie Kirk on the bank of the Tennessee river on three charges of night riding was one of the most gratifying since the Calloway county grand jury first reported. Kelsie, who is a wild young fellow, was one of the first indicted, but he had fled to Trigg county, and was hard to find. His arrest by Robert Lasiter, a special deputy, also shows how well organized the forces of the county are under Judge Wells, Sheriff Edwards and Major Albrecht. Lasiter is one of the men patrolling the river, and he was to report when Kelsie Kirk had crossed. Lasiter made the arrest himself at a Calloway town just as Kelsie was preparing to cross back into Trigg county. He had been visiting home folks. He was locked up in default of bond.

COL. HENRY L. STONE MAKES REPLY TO LETTER OF SENATOR-ELECT BRADLEY

Tells Why He Should be Fighting for Republican Party Instead of Against Probable Nominee.

The following circular letter was sent out by Senator-elect W. O. Bradley:

"My Dear Sir: In my judgment, owing to the bitter opposition of the labor union and negroes, the election of Taft, if he should be nominated, would be greatly endangered.

"The federal officeholders appear to be almost unanimously for Taft, because they generally seem to fear that they will be removed from office if they should oppose him. They may rest assured that no such removal will be made on this account, as every citizen has a right to his opinion. Combinations of federal officeholders may see trouble, but those exercising their individual opinions will not be molested.

"I hope that you will go to your ward convention, on April 25, and see that your friends also attend, and that you will instruct your delegates to vote for the nomination of Mr. Fairbanks who can command the support of all elements of our party, and who has been kind to the people of Kentucky.

"Please see your friends in your ward and urge that they immediately go to work for Fairbanks.

"Bear in mind that this struggle does not, in anywise, involve the administrations of the city of Louisville and Jefferson county. No city or county officers are to be elected this year. Vote for delegates pledged for Fairbanks, and do not suffer yourselves to be turned from this purpose by campaign cries uttered for the purpose of deceiving Republicans.

Elmus Williams appeared in Murray and gave bond.

Kelsie Kirk is considered one of the most active members of the east side band. It is charged that he has participated in forcing a number to take the oath of allegiance to the night riders, and seldom failed to be present when something was doing on the pike at night. He was at one time a street car motorman in Paducah, and is well known in Calloway county and those adjoining.

It is said that Kelsie Kirk is the one who saved the life of Deputy Sheriff John Holland a short time ago, when one of the men, now in jail, was hiding under a building along the highway to shoot Holland as he passed. Kelsie Kirk, who is kind of heart, notified Holland of his danger, and Holland returned to his home by another route.

The 52 indictments returned are against 33 men, all members of the east side band. It is understood that the leaders of that aggregation are all indicted, and the grand jury is now engaged in the cases on the west side. This accounts for the activity of the soldiers Saturday night, in their effort to find Murray Harris.

Quarterly Conference at Broadway.

The Rev. J. W. Blackard, presiding elder of the Paducah district, will hold the second quarterly conference of the Broadway Methodist church tonight at 7:45 o'clock at the church. All the officials of the church are expected to be present.

PADUCAH WINS

MAYSVILLE STRIKE

Maysville, Ky., April 21.—(Special.)—The High school strike situation is not changed. Superintendent Clinton was bussed by pupils when he tried to address them. The new teacher in the place of Professor Coryell was discharged as he was unable to handle the classes.

An election to determine whether the city of Cairo will be wet or dry for the next three years is being held in that city today. Several Paducahans went to Cairo last night and will remain over until the votes are counted.

SHOOT HIMSELF AFTER FASTENING ROPE ABOUT NECK

George Beardon of Ballard County Makes Certain of Death.

Fall Breaks Rope But Bullet Ends His Life.

PREPARED FOR HIS FUNERAL

After bathing and carefully dressing himself for burial, and writing a note to his wife explaining the preparations, George L. Beardon, of Gage, Ballard county, took a rope and climbed onto a rafter in his tobacco barn about 200 yards from his house. He carried with him also an old-fashioned double barrel pistol. He fastened one end of the rope securely to another rafter, and made a noose, which he fitted about his own neck. Then he poised himself on the edge of the beam and fired a bullet into his brain. He fell off the rafter on his face, breaking the rope with the weight of his body, and was found stone cold in death by his family an hour or more later. The deed was done about 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, as the shot was heard by a neighbor.

Beardon was a well-to-do farmer between 50 and 60 years old, and leaves a wife and four grown sons, one of whom, Urey Beardon, formerly lived at Paducah, but is now in Princeton. The note left by Mr. Beardon was brief. He said he was prepared for burial and he left instructions concerning the funeral, but he hinted at no cause for his rash act. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

CONTRACTOR HAS SELF INDICTED ON OWN EVIDENCE

Perhaps the most accommodating man who has ever been presented before a federal grand jury in Paducah is D. B. Wilson, of the firm of Wilson & Bondurant, contractors, who in the absence of the prosecuting witness yesterday appeared before the grand jury and gave evidence on which indictments were returned against his firm, and V. Carpenter and J. D. Walker, all contractors working on the Hickman levee, and charged with violating the eight hour law. "I wanted to get the case over with," said Mr. Wilson. "They were shy a jurymen just at the moment, and I even offered to fill his place long enough to indict us."

JIM HOWARD'S CASE

Former District Attorney W. M. Smith, of Louisville, is in the city attending federal court. He is attorney for Jim Howard, and while not intending to anticipate the governor's action, he expressed confidence that the proof of his client's innocence was placed so clearly before the governor that a pardon will be granted.

Grain Market.

St. Louis, April 21.—Wheat, 97; corn, 68; oats, 52 1/2.

Brig. Gen. Roger Williams Comes to Paducah to Assume Command of Troops on Duty in the Black Patch.

This City Will be Headquarters of Military Operations Hereafter—Aggressive Campaign Now on.

Frankfort, Ky., April 21.—(Special.)—Brigadier General Roger D. Williams, of Lexington, commander of the Kentucky national guard, has been ordered to Paducah to take command of the troops in the Black Patch. He held a conference with the governor at Frankfort, and it is understood he has authority to use the entire force of the state in his discretion to stamp out night riding. His headquarters will be in Paducah.

It is evident from this that the state authorities intend to take advantage of the breach made in Calloway county to break up the night rider bands, and an aggressive campaign will be carried on.

Major E. B. Bassett, commanding the first battalion of the Third regiment, and Major G. W. Albright, of the Second regiment, who has been commanding the detachment on duty in the Black Patch, left Hopkinsville at 11:20 o'clock this morning presumably to report to General Williams at Paducah.

General Williams was commander for many years of the Second regiment, and is one of the most efficient officers of the militia in the United States. When the state militia was organized into a brigade, Colonel Williams was made brigadier general and placed in command.

General Williams Here.

Brigadier General Williams has arrived in Paducah and assumed command of the troops. He declined to be interviewed.

CAN'T GET NAMES

Memphis, Tenn., April 21.—Four Italians were killed and forty injured this morning by the premature explosion of blasting powder at a construction camp near Heber, Ark. The interpreter was killed and names are not obtainable.

Cyclone Suit.

The suit of the Smith sisters against J. M. White for $4,000 damages as a result of millinery being destroyed by the collapse of a wall of the building formerly occupied by the Scott Hardware company, has been on trial in federal court today, a large number of witnesses being introduced. The Smith sisters are represented by Attorneys Cree & Ross while Campbell & Campbell, H. S. Corbett, of Paducah, and City Attorney James Richards, of Louisville, represent Captain White.

The contention of the plaintiff is that Capt. White was responsible for the damage by allowing the walls which had been rendered unsafe and dangerous by a fire, to stand. The defense claims that the collapse was caused by a tornado or in legal terms "an act of God." Practically every contractor and builder in the city are witnesses and other witnesses are Weather Observer Borneman, and A. F. Lagerwahl and the others injured in the collapse of the building.

It Was A Joke They Played.

Will Meadows, 17 years old, and Birdie Mason, 16 years old, both of Barlow, Ky., are a pair of practical jokers. Not because they really entertained any serious notion of getting married, or because they wanted to frighten their relatives, but rather because they wanted to play a good joke upon their relatives, they ran away from home and came to Paducah Sunday afternoon, leaving word that when they returned it would be as man and wife.

Whether they actually applied for a license to marry at the court house in this city is not known, but after remaining at the home of a relative in Paducah Sunday night, they took the steamer Dick Fowler yesterday morning for Metropolis. In the meantime the frightened relatives at Barlow, who could not see the point of the joke, telephoned to this city and to Metropolis warning the county clerk in each place not to issue a marriage license to them for the very good reason that neither of them is of a marriageable age.

At Metropolis they were met by an officer who called the young woman by name and asked them both if they were looking for the court house. They were too foxy for the Metropolis policeman, however, and the girl denied her name and both declared that they simply came to

LET ALL ENTER ON NORTHERN TRACK SAYS M. N. BURNS

A special and informal meeting of the board of aldermen was held in the council chambers at the city hall this afternoon to give the members of the board and such citizens who desired to attend an opportunity to hear the address of M. N. Burns, of St. Louis upon the proposition for the granting of a railway franchise to the Paducah & Northern railroad. Aldermen Sherrill, Baker, Hannan, Miller, Oehlschlaeger and Stewart and about 25 well known citizens were present.

Mr. Burns, who is the president of the Toledo, St. Louis & New Orleans railway, objected to the proposed Paducah & Northern franchise on the grounds that it would shut out the chance of any railroad to get into Paducah. He offered a typewritten amendment to the proposed franchise, which, if adopted as a part of the instrument, will permit any road seeking admission to this city to come into the city on the tracks of the Paducah & Northern.

DE SAGAN TALKS

Paris, April 21.—Prince de Sagan, left for Italy today. Madame Gould is due in Naples Thursday and will meet him there. He spoke with unexpected good humor of what he terms his "persecution" by American papers, and public. Questioned as to his approaching marriage he said: "The future is in God's hand, and you know whom besides."

Runaway on Broadway.

A runaway that might have proved serious took place on Broadway near Twelfth street about 6:30 o'clock this morning, when a mule owned by E. P. Gilson ran away, throwing the driver, a negro, out of his seat and dumping the wagon in the gutter. The driver kept hold of the lines and brought the animal to a stop without serious damage to the mule or the vehicle. A passing bicyclist, however, had a narrow escape from being run over.

DECORATE CHURCH

The Ramsey society of the Broadway Methodist church last night closed the contract with Bogard & Son, church decorators of Chicago, to decorate the auditorium of the church and the work will begin on Monday. It will be completed in a month. Green will be the prevailing tint of the walls. The firm stands high as artists in their line of work and has just completed the frescoing of the Methodist and Christian churches in Mayfield.

Miss Sophia Baker, of South Twelfth street, who was stricken with paralysis last week, is resting better today.

OBJECTIONS TO PAD. & NORTHTRN RAILROAD PLANS

Bridge at Brookport Not Feasible and Proposed Route Only One Possible.

Promoter Owns Land at Brookport.

BUSINESS MEN GIVE REASONS

"The principal objections to the Paducah & Northern propositions as admitted by the organ of opposition, inspired by a promoter of another railroad seeking entrance into the city," said a business man today, "is that Paducah can not obtain a direct route to the north without a bridge at this point, and that the construction of a bridge at Metropolis will make the extension from that town to Paducah a mere jerkwater route; that roads seeking a southern outlet would go on from Metropolis, thereby leaving Paducah on a mere branch.

"The statements are ridiculous. The roads seeking entrance into Paducah are the Big Four and the Frisco. Both of these roads have lines into Cairo, and a man with any degree of intelligence knows they would find it more profitable to build from that point south, if that was their object.

"It is the intention of these roads, if they get the Paducah entrance, to make traffic arrangements with the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis for their southern outlets—a proposition which will be appreciated by any one who studies it for a moment, and which is verified by the fact that as soon as the Paducah & Northern proposition was broached the Louisville & Nashville, which is the controlling factor in the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis, abandoned its contemplated line from a point near Murray to Cairo, where it would connect with these two roads.

"To consider the bridge proposition: Every one agrees it would be a nice thing to have a bridge across the Ohio here, but it is not as practicable and it is the practical things that appeal to the monied interest before the merely 'nice.' Railroad engineers have investigated the bridge

FOUNTAIN AVE. CHURCH

Stewards of the Trimble Street Methodist church met last night and decided to call the new edifice Fountain Avenue Methodist church. It will be erected at Fountain avenue and Monroe street, and the work of construction will commence about June 1.

FORTY BODIES RECOVERED

Melbourne, Australia, April 21.—Fortytwo bodies were taken from the ruins of the Baybrook junction wreck. It is believed that several others are under the burned cars. The injured number 88. Bendigo, the train engineer, says the brakes failed to work.

GRAND JURY'S WORK

The McCracken county grand jury, which is still in session, will not make its next report until court sits again and this may not be until Judge Reed opens the civil term next Monday. It may be, however, that some day toward the latter part of the present week will be appointed a sentence day, in which event the grand jury will be given an opportunity to report upon indictments rendered. It is understood that some of the night rider letter writers will be indicted.

KING THANKS RESCUERS

Madrid, April 21.—King Alfonso gave a street car motorman ten dollars for saving the king's life yesterday. The auto in which the king was riding collided with a street car. The motorman's action prevented a serious accident. The king gave his thanks in addition to the money.

Match for Big Purse.

London, April 21.—Hackenschmidt's manager announced Lord Lonsdale and A. G. Vanderbilt offered a purse of $10,000 for a match between Hackenschmidt and Gatch before August, either in England or on a neutral soil.

ONLY ONE WAY TO RETAIN GOOD HEALTH, SAYS COOPER

L. T. Cooper's theory regarding the human stomach is rapidly becoming a topic of universal discussion. Cooper claims that the human stomach has become chronically deranged by modern conditions, and that sickness generally is the result.

In a recent interview, while introducing his medicine in a leading city, Mr. Cooper said: "There is just one way, in my opinion, to maintain general health, and that is by building up the digestive organs. The vast majority of Americans today have weak, flabby, distended stomachs. This has been caused by many generations of over-feeding and lack of exercise, until today the entire civilized race is affected. This is the true cause of most of the ill health of today. Little can be done to relieve it until the stomach is once more brought back to normal conditions.

"I am successful because my preparation puts the stomach in sound condition, and as I maintain this is the only way to secure general and permanent good health."

Among many prominent people who have recently become converted to Cooper's theory is Mr. E. M. Howey, of 47 1/2 De Russey street, Binghamton, N. Y., who says: "I had stomach trouble for about six years. After eating, I would become bloated and have a distressed feeling for several hours. This would be accompanied by heartburn, and I reached the point where I could not enjoy my meals at all. "I tried different remedies in an effort to find relief, but without success. After taking three bottles of Cooper's New Discovery I am entirely cured. My stomach does not bother me in the least, and I can eat anything I like. I can cheerfully recommend Mr. Cooper's medicine to anyone afflicted with stomach complaints."

Mr. Cooper's medicines are making a remarkable record. We sell them. —W. B. McPherson.

"You can't imagine," said the musical young woman, "how distressing it is when a singer realizes that she has lost her voice." "Perhaps not," replied the plain man, "but I've got a fair idea how distressing it is when she doesn't realize it."—The Catholic Standard and Times.

Sure Proofs—"I should think that a clockmaker's business was a very uncertain one." "Why so?" "Because it is a business that runs on tick, and one engaged in it is always sure of a strike coming, with the daily prospect of a wind-up."—Baltimore American.

HACK ORDINANCE GREATLY AMENDED

Passes Lower Board of General
Council in New Form.

Every Member Present in His Seat
When Routine Business Was Transacted With Dispatch.

ANOTHER MEETING TONIGHT.

Every member of the lower board of the general council was present in his seat last evening and most of them participated in a long drawn out discussion of the several new features of the proposed new hack drivers' ordinance. Councilman Van Meter, of the ordinance committee, stood sponsor for the new measure, and Councilman Dowers led in the general assault and was loaded with an amendment for nearly every section of the document. Before the session closed the ordinance was amended as finally adopted under a suspension of the rules. It will now go to the board of aldermen for final consideration before Mayor Smith gets a chance to make it a law by attaching his signature or kill it altogether by his veto.

The new ordinance provides that the public hack stand shall be on Kentucky avenue, between Third and Fourth streets, and on Jefferson street between the same streets. This will keep all hacks off Fourth street and Broadway and out of the way of the fire department apparatus and passing vehicles at the most congested corner of the city.

The ordinance also provides that each hack shall carry two lamps, that lamps shall be kept lighted and that lamps shall bear the license number of the hack in figures not less than 2 1/2 inches high.

As amended the ordinance provides that hack drivers may charge the sum of 25 cents for each passenger within the territory bounded by Burnett street on the north, Fountain avenue on the west and a line drawn from the Union station to the corner of Fourth and Broad streets on the south. Outside of this territory the charge will be 50 cents. Children under 5 years old must be "carried free if accompanied by a full fare passenger."

Mr. Palmer, of the Palmer Transfer company, and Will Farley, of Mechanicsburg, each took some part in the discussion of the various features of the ordinance. Mr. Farley contending that all of Mechanicsburg should be included within the 25 cent limits.

The ordinance also provides that hack drivers must stand at their hack doors at the depots and wharves, and forbids them leaving their vehicles for the purpose of soliciting passengers.

meeting of the council were read at the opening of the session, Councilman Bower moved to expunge from the record the action of the council relative to a proposition recently made by Contractor Weikel for the building of a sewer across his property between Broadway and Jefferson street near Eighteenth street. This motion was carried leaving the matter in the same shape as before. Mr. Weikel's proposition was presented.

The petition of the Sherrill King Lumber company from exemption from taxation and the refunding of the sum of $67 already paid was referred to the finance committee for consideration and report.

When adjournment was taken it was with the understanding that another meeting will be held at the regular hour this evening for the purpose of considering the proposed ordinance governing the city wharves and other regular business that was not reached last night. This new ordinance is a lengthy document covering about ten pages of closely written matter, and it is expected the discussion will take as much time as did the hack driver ordinance last night. All the members were furnished with typewritten copies in order that they might familiarize themselves with its various features before tonight's meeting time.

HIS INFORMAL WAY.

Tipped Off by Justice, Country Lawyer Won His Case.

The following anecdote, after remaining in storage many years, has been recently dusted and brought to light:

A young and afterwards distinguished attorney from an up-country district of New York State was arguing his first appeal in the old general term of the Supreme Court. He had been in many legal skirmishes in justices' courts at home, but had never stood in the awesome presence of five seate and learned judges of the Supreme Court, in general term assembled. His embarrassment was great. He repeated himself and misplaced his words so often that it was quite evident that he must soon be routed by his own confusion unless something should occur to break the spell. Finally, and just as he was floundering the deepest in a chaotic jumble of language and ideas, the presiding judge interrupted with the following remark:

"Mr. Smithers, I believe it will be a great relief to yourself and to the court if you will address us in the same free and informal way that you doubtless use in addressing your local justice of the peace."

"Well, then," replied Smithers, "I wish that while I am busy alleviating your honor's dense ignorance of the law you would keep your d—d mouth shut!" The court laughed heartily and waved for him to proceed. He grew eloquent and won his case in the midst of hearty applause.—Bohemian.

A Worthy Antagonist.

"Did you visit any of the old caves when you were in Scotland?" Jorkins was asked by a friend.

"Yes," replied Jorkins reminiscently, "and, by gum, we had to forcibly pull Maria out of one cave."

"Good gracious! She was fascinated by its beauty, I suppose."

"No, it wasn't beauty. You see, there is a wonderful echo in the cave, and Maria couldn't bear to think of the echo having the last word."

T-T-Two of a K-K-Kind.

A tall man, impatiently pacing the platform of a wayside station, accosted a red-haired boy of about 12.

"S-s-say," he said, "d-d-do y-you know ha-ha-how late this train is?"

The boy grinned, but made no reply. The man stuttered out some thing about red-headed kids in general and passed into the station.

A stranger, overhearing the one-sided conversation, asked the boy why he hadn't answered the big man.

"D-d-d'y'e want'er see mer g-g-get me fa-fa-face punched?" stammered the boy. D-d-dat big g-g-guy'd tink I was mo-mo-mocking him."—Everybody's Magazine.

THEATRICAL NOTES

Lillian Russell.

In her new play, "Wildfire," by George Broadhurst and George V. Hobart, which comes to The Kentucky soon, Lillian Russell plays the part of a young widow who has inherited a racing stable. Her friends think she is wealthy, when the stable is all she possesses. Only the trainer shares with her the ownership, as she races the horses under the name of John Duffy. Her little sister is engaged to marry the son of a reformer, whose object is to abolish racing in New York state. This young man has succumbed to the gambling fever and lost heavily to John Duffy, a bookmaker. Many believe Duffy owns the stable, and he permits the impression to be spread. The widow knowing that if the reformer ever learned she was the owner of the stable it would break off the match between her sister and his son, determines to sell out after her horse "Wildfire" wins one more race. Two men are endeavoring to win the widow's hand in marriage; one is a westerner, who has made his money in mines, and the other is devoted to automobiles. These persons serve to complicate a plot which centers about the great race.

AN OLD IDEA.

Shown to Be Absolutely False by Modern Science.

People used to think that baldness was one of those things, which are handed down from generation to generation, from father to son—just like a family heirloom.

Science has shown the fallacy of this belief by proving that baldness itself is not a constitutional disease, but the result of a germ invasion of which only Herpicide can effectually rid the scalp.

Washing only cleans the scalp of Dandruff, it doesn't kill the germs. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Newbro's Herpicide will do this in every case. It is also a delightful dressing.

GIGANTIC TELEPHONE FAILURE— STOCKHOLDERS BADLY VICTIMIZED. COLLAPSE OF INDEPENDENT CO.

Newark, N. J., April 4.—With the filing of an opinion advising the appointment of a receiver for the United States Independent Telephone company by Vice Chancellor Howell here yesterday afternoon, comes the closing phase of a chimera in the line of independent telephone that for magnitude rivals anything in the history of high finance. The losses aggregating $70,000,000.

Readers of the Leader all over the state of Connecticut will be doubly interested in this history of the inception, career, and collapse of the most ambitious independent telephone project ever attempted, particularly in view of the fact that now an independent company is striving for a foothold in the Nutmeg state.

This United States Independent Telephone company was capitalized at $50,000,000 in the state of New Jersey with its principal seat of business in Rochester, New York, where it was established, ON PAPER, to oppose the Rochester Telephone company which had the field well covered.

Application for the receivership was made yesterday by James M. E. O'Grady, a stockholder who set up a deficiency judgment for more than $16,000,000.

Vice Chancellor Howell in his opinion said: "THE QUESTION OF INSOLVENCY IS ONE WHICH I NEED NOT CONSIDER BECAUSE IT IS AMPLY PROVEN NOT ONLY BY THE COMPLAINTS BUT MORE PARTICULARLY BY THE DEFENDANTS."

"A NEW JERSEY CORPORATION WHICH HAS NO PROPERTY AND IS A JUDGMENT DEBTOR TO THE EXTENT OF $16,000,000 EVEN THOUGH IT BE A FOREIGN JUDGMENT, MUST BE HELD INSOLVENT."

The people of Rochester, bankers, lawyers, ministers, trustees, widows, clerks, dressmakers and thousands dependent upon the income from these bonds, sold them by the promoters, are today paying the fiddler.

It was the severest blow ever dealt the people of any one city and brought panic conditions on Rochester a full year before they came in the depression of 1907 to the country at large.

Through the decline in the price of its securities the actual money loss to the people of Rochester WAS NOT FAR FROM $10,000,000 AND THE RESULTING RECESSION IN BUSINESS RESULTED IN A LOSS OF AT LEAST $40,000,000 TO THE MANUFACTURERS AND MERCHANTS OF THE PLACE.

HISTORY OF COMPANY.
The company was capitalized nominally at $100,000,000 INCREASED A FEW DAYS LATER TO FIFTY MILLIONS.

It was authorized by its articles of incorporation to create a bonded indebtedness of $25,000,000 of which about one-half was finally issued.

The total amount of stock outstanding was never more than seven millions.

The directorate included Rochester's most respected, most influential and most powerful men.

THEIR APPEARANCE IN THE DIRECTORATE WAS ACCEPTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY AS A GUARANTEE OF THE SOUNDNESS OF THE ENTIRE PROPOSITION AND OF THE CAPABILITY OF THE COMPANY'S MANAGEMENT.

This parent company was a holding concern only, and for the control of such operating and manufacturing companies as should become affiliated with it, bonds were to be given accompanied by a 40 per cent. stock bonus.

ECZEMA NOW CURABLE.
All Itching Skin Diseases Which Are Not Hereditary Instantly Relieved by Oil of Wintergreen.

Can Eczema be cured? Some physicians say "Yes." Some say "No."

The real question is, "What is meant by Eczema?" If you mean those sealy eruptions, those diseases which make their first appearance, not at birth, but years afterward, and perhaps not until middle age—then there can no longer be any question that these forms of Eczema are curable.

Simple vegetable oil of wintergreen, mixed with other vegetable ingredients, will kill the germs that infect the skin. Apply this prescription to the skin, and instantly that awful itch is gone. The very moment the liquid is applied, that agonizing, tantalizing itch disappears, and continued applications of this external remedy soon cure the disease.

We carry in stock this oil of wintergreen properly compounded into D. D. D. Prescription. While we are not sure that it will cure all those cases of skin trouble which are inherited, we positively know that this D. D. D. Prescription, whenever rightly used, will cure every last case of genuine Eczema or other skin trouble, which did not exist at birth.

We know this. Anyway you, yourself, will know that D. D. D. Prescription instantly takes away the itch the moment it is applied to the skin. R. W. Walker Co., 5th and Broadway. Stop that itch today—Instantly. Just call at our store and try this refreshing and soothing liquid; ask also about D. D. D. Soap.

The bonus was also given for cash subscription to the bonds.

An inflated valuation was given all properties taken over in order to increase in the minds of a speculating public the attractiveness of the securities of which those properties were the base.

Thus the Rochester Telephone company's stock was taken over at 200 while the Stromberg-Carlson Manufacturing company (telephone supplies) came in on a basis of 175 for the common and 135 for the preferred, in bonds with a bonus in all cases of 40 per cent. in U. S. I. stock.

PUBLIC BOUGHT WATER.

The bonds were collateral trust five per cent. and the quantity outstanding was immense in proportion to the intrinsic value of the properties covered.

They were of highly speculative character and not an investment by any manner of means.

This the people did not see and great quantities were taken as investments by widows, superannuated clergymen, trustees, women with small savings, and the stock was taken where it was considered possible to wait two or three years for the returns.

The real cause of weakness was of course the excessive amount of water in the project and the natural market was narrow and weak when the interim certificates appeared.

The artificial market created to stimulate demand for the securities was not much better. Only one banker in Rochester saw the end in the beginning and he informed two brokers who were friends.

They sold when the securities were at top notch and even went short on the stock and bonds.

THE MARKET SAGGED AND JOHN C. WOODBURY, ONE OF THE DIRECTORS, LOST HIS ENTIRE FORTUNE OF $750,000 PEGGING THE MARKET, BUYING ALL THE BONDS THAT WERE OFFERED.

On or about March 3, 1906, the first of a large quantity of bonds appeared on the market coming from a source that was for several months unknown. They were offered down and sold for whatever they would bring. The sale continued through March, April and a few days in May. The bonds remained quiet for a week or two, but about May 25 another quantity appeared, when the price was about 68. These, also, were offered down, and the price fell off, the net loss averaging about two points per week for the entire period from June 1 to September 1.

The block sold in the spring amounted to about $750,000, while the summer block amounted to more than $1,000,000.

The announcement to the effect that the company was in financial difficulties caused a sharp decline in the price of the bonds and stock, but the market was manipulated and the decline not only temporarily checked but prices were given an upward impulse that carried them higher than they had been since midsummer.

Various reports by certified accountants on the condition of the parent and affiliated companies were presented at the time the note issue was voted, and the face of the evidence was to the effect that not only the subsidiary companies, but the waterlogged parent as well were in a highly satisfactory condition. According to these reports the U. S. I. bonds at the prices then current were a "buy," and many were bought, the manipulation being aided by much legitimate buying. One director of the company, who has since said that he was misled by these reports, sold a large amount of high-priced dividend paying stocks and put the entire proceeds into U. S. I. bonds.

Awakening of Investors.

But it was an artificial condition and before October, 1906, was well started another crisis appeared. President Finucane faced an angry board of directors and said to them that the company was practically a wreck, and if anything was saved action must be taken immediately. An advisory committee of five members was appointed upon the request of Mr. Finucane, which took over the general direction of the company's affairs, including the duties of the president, an emergency loan was made by some of the large bondholders and the work of salvaging the company was begun. The bonds had sagged again and practically every holder became alarmed.

Dressmakers, ministers, laundresses, clerks, servants and others who were more or less dependent upon the income from the bonds telephoned to or called upon the large bondholders to ask as to their safety of their "investment." Everywhere in every walk of life in the city the impending failure of the company had cast its black shadow.

Nothing of moment was said by the advisory committee until during the closing days of 1906, when it was announced that both the Rochester Telephone company and the Stromberg-Carlson company had passed their dividends. About the close of January, 1907, a self-appointed committee of bondholders, composed of George Eastman, Hiram W. Sibley, James S. Watson and others, announced that an offer had been received from the Title Guarantee and Trust company, of Jersey City, N. J., to take over the securities of the U. S. I. company on the basis of 35 for the bonds, 5 for the stock and 1 for the preferred stock, the latter having been used in buying the New York Independent "franchise," later capitalized at $26,000,000 in the New York Independent Telephone company.

Prevented Saving Portion.

It was subsequently learned that the trust company was the representative of the American Telephone and Telegraph company (the Bell parent organization). The offer was accepted, more than 90 per cent of each class of securities assenting, but certain interests in and out of Rochester secured political assistance and the proposed deal was stopped by an injunction secured by Attorney-General Jackson, of New York state.

Walter B. Duffy, as chairman of the reorganization committee, gave out an interview in which he declared it was the duty of the wealthy bondholders, who had given the company prestige in the beginning, to participate in the reorganization and thus do what they could to save at least a little for the small, poor bondholders. Various opinions are held concerning the interview, but it had the desired effect and undoubtedly saved the situation. Immediately after the interview appeared holders of the 50 per cent of bonds required to give the reorganization committee standing during the foreclosure proceedings, assented to the plan. The period within which to deposit assenting bonds was extended and the date of the sale was deferred.

The sale of the Utah Independent Telephone company's stock held by the U. S. I., which amounted to 50.20 per cent of the amount outstanding, was solicited in the summer of 1907 by Elmer B. Jones, of Salt Lake City, managing director of the company. An option was given on the stock, but it was impossible for Mr. Jones to comply with the terms within the option period. After an unsuccessful attempt by Jones to have the option extended, the securities were sold through John N. Beckley, of Rochester, to R. L. Day and company, of New York, brokers, acting presumably for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, for $910,000 cash.

While the negotiations relative to the Utah securities were going on, W. C. Wade, of Jamestown, N. Y., approached the advisory committee with a proposition to purchase the control of the Home Telephone company, of Jamestown, which was held, to all intents and purposes, by the U. S. I. This control was represented by certain stock upon which a Rochester bank had loaned $86,000. Wade made a bid of $40,000, and afterward raised it to $45,000. The sale was made at that figure, the bank taking a loss of $41,000.

This sale was the last made before the order of sale in the foreclosure action was entered.

Lighthouse Kills Birds.

One of the keepers who came ashore from Boon Island, recently tells the story of the strange death encountered by thousands of the migrating birds every spring. Flying along the coast at night they are instantly attracted by the powerful light from the watch tower, as moths are drawn to a candle. Thousands of these birds in their passage north fly with full force against the thick glass of the brilliantly lighted lantern. Stunned to death, they fall to the rocks below or scale away for a little distance and flutter helplessly into the water. The light of morning sometimes reveals the rocks covered with the little creatures whose journey to their summer homes has met this sudden and fatal termination. Hundreds of species are found among the unfortunate little tourists. Most of them are easily recognized as belonging to the various common classes of song birds. But very often large birds of beautiful plumage come to their final resting place in this manner upon the bleak rocks of Boon Island. On one occasion several years ago the thick glass of the lantern was shattered to atoms by the impact of some strange bird of powerful build.—York (Me.) Transcript.

New Suits to Order.

A young Philadelphia lawyer some time ago migrated to a developing western town in quest of fortune and of fame. At first he located in a large storeroom where other enterprises were conducted, and had a space partitioned off for his office. He made friends rapidly, accumulated business and was regarded highly as a counselor. But one day friends looked at him strangely and hurled all manner of derisive threats at him. He was accused of degrading his profession.

Daily Thought.

There's no place for the man who has lost his self-respect.

If the men, who are fighting so hard against William H. Taft in Kentucky, have such a wonderful regard for the welfare of the colored brother, why are M. H. Thatcher and Ben Bruner preferring charges against Ewell Gaines, of Covington, special examiner of the internal revenue department. He is one of the best known colored men in the state, and being one of the most intelligent leaders of his race, he has espoused the cause of Secretary of War Taft. If they are fighting Gaines because he is for Taft, perhaps their interest in the colored man is limited to his usefulness in the present contest.

WHAT MAY COME.

Soldiers, armed soldiers, dressed for service, with belts full of cartridges and huge pistols dangling menacingly at their sides, parade our streets in the day time and patrol the lonely pikes at midnight. And why? Because some of our people, who follow the peaceful pursuits of husbandry in the day time, saddle their horses when the shades of night fall, pull black stockings down over their faces, throw white handkerchiefs over their shoulders and ride forth to sleeping villages or the hushed home-stead of some unsuspecting farmer and shoot into windows where women and children are slumbering, forcing the husband and father to fare forth and receive a brutal beating to protect his loved ones from the bullets of the murderous band. Maybe their hellish fancy turns to fire, and with incendiary torch they streak the dark background of the night with the red glare of a burning barn—or a dwelling house, then they can hide in the wood and watch with glee the inmates struggling, sleep-eyed through the flames, naked or garbed only in their night clothes.

That's why the soldiers are here. And these are not ignorant, oppressed, laboring men, led by some wild-tongued demagogue and rendered desperate by the thought of starving women and children at home. Some of these boast that they represent the blue blood of west Kentucky's agricultural sections, men who enjoy the honorable heritage of ancestral respect for law and order and decency; men who are clearing $200 the acre from their fertile farms. Their presence in the oath-bound band of arson and murder does not give it character. The more shame to them! We have naught but pity for the poor farmer, deluded into joining the band by his more enlightened and prosperous neighbor. He'll behave if his betters do.

We do not resent the presence of soldiers in the Black Patch. We resent the condition that makes their presence tolerable. "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" are guaranteed by our constitution, and when local authorities are unable to perform that guaranty, then must the military power be invoked. These soldiers are Kentucky boys and they represent Kentucky's might, and right well are they doing their work. Not even those whose watchful eyes are alert to magnify some slight deviation from decorum, can criticize their conduct so far. But we warn these night riders right now, that when they make it apparent that these state soldiers are unable to protect citizens of the United States in the peaceful possession of property and the right to live, then there is another power that can be invoked; and before it can be said that anarchy reigns in Kentucky, they will see the civil authority abrogated, and a military governor appointed over the state, and some of the leading men of the community will leave their farms to be tilled by tenants, while they serve well-deserved sentences at Governor's Island or Ft. Leavenworth, sent there by a summary court martial.

Surely, these men cannot be blinded by fanaticism to the extent that they do not realize by now that the law and right will prevail.

THE MISSION OF TODAY.

There is a class of beings at large today who are the brand-new product of the last ten years. Like other specialists, they have developed a coterie language of their own, and call themselves social workers. They are the district visitors of charity organizations, the undergraduates in schools of philanthropy, the gatherers of labor statistics, investigators of poverty, settlement workers, probation court officers, professors of sociology, the directors of boys' and girls' clubs, and a multitude of other functionaries. Their subject-matter for both research and active alleviative and preventive work includes child labor, women in industry, employers' liability, the eight-hour day, industrial education, prison reform, the treatment of the criminal, overwork, congestion and over population, tuberculosis, and all the rest of the betterment program. Their work is of distinct value in serving the community with its problems. They live in a world of reality, and are putting their excellent minds, which might have dealt with literary criticism, on the vexations of the municipal budget and the impediments to sanitation and clean streets. They are obedient to the impulse that used to drive men and women into church and religious activity, or into the arts. It is the same desire that art expresses—the escape from the narrow individual life into a sense of merging with larger ideas and tendencies. Art has hardly yet become a vocation for the many in this country. In other nations, and at other times, music, sculpture, and cathedral building have been the concrete expression of the longing of the race to escape the limitations of the daily routine. In those times and places, the inner life of the common people has been able to shine itself in definite forms that the eye could see and the hand could touch. The statue and the painting and the church were so many real points where discouragement and fatigue and sorrow could refresh themselves. These people, who are growing up among us, are busy in a like good effort to merge the personal career and petty grind into a community life. Public baths and libraries and schools, dispensaries, vacation homes, musical settlements, technical institutes for the people, represent the desire for expansion and wider form of life.—Editorial in Easter Collier's.

SLIGHTLY HUMOROUS.

The way to win a girl is to have her make up her mind not to lose you.

"The gentleman from Missouri has the floor," rapped the speaker of the house. "In that case," exclaimed the new member from Arkansas, rising, "I put in my bid for the furniture!"—Puck.

Bocker—Yes; told his boss that he had been detained at the office and his wife that he had been up with the baby.—New York Sun.

Mr. Nagger—No woman ever made a fool of me!

Mrs. Nagger—Who did, then?

Hogs.

Mose, the darky cook of a party of surveyors in eastern Texas, was greatly annoyed by the razorback hogs that roamed around the camp. One evening, while he was at the spring, a particularly ravenous band of these "piny woods rooters" raided the cook tent and ate everything that was edible and some other things that weren't.

For several moments after his return from the spring Mose could find no words to express his feelings. "Well," he finally exclaimed, "de good Lawd, suhstainly knowed His business when He named haws haws! Dey sho' is haws!"

CHAPTER XX.

I HAD plenty of time to run away. I do not know why I did not do so, but the fact stands that I remained where I was until they had finished Captain Selover. Then I took to my heels, but was soon cornered. I drew my revolver, remembered that I had emptied it in the seal cave and had time for no more coherent mental processes. A smothering weight flung itself on me, against which I struggled as hard as I could, shrinking in anticipation from the thrifty plunge of the knives. However, though the weight increased until further struggle was impossible, I was not harmed and in a few moments found myself, wrists and ankles tied, beside a roaring fire. While I collected myself I heard the grate of a boat being shoved off from the cave and a few moments later made out lights about the Laughing Lass.

The leading party returned very shortly. Their plundering had gone only as far as liquor and arms. Thrackles let down from the cliff top a keg at the end of a line. Perdosa and the nigger each carried an armful of the 30-40 rifles. The keg was rolled to the fire and broached.

The men got drunk, wildly drunk, but not helplessly so. A dame communicated itself to them through the liquor. The ordinary characteristics of their composition sprang into sharper relief. The nigger became more sullen, Perdosa more snakelike, Pulz more viciously evil, Thrackles more brutal, while Handy Solomon, staggering from his seat to the open keg and back again, roared fragments of a chanty, his red headgear contrasting with his smoky black hair and his swarthy hooked countenance—he needed no further touch.

Their evil passions were all awake, and the plan, so long indefinite, developed like a photographer's plate.

"That's one gone," said Thrackles.

"And now the diamonds," muttered Pulz.

"There's a ship upon the windward, a wreck upon the lee."

Down on the coast of the high Barbaree—

roared Handy Solomon. "It's the best night's work we ever did. The stuff's ours. Then it's me for a big stone house in Frisco!"

"Frisco?" sneered Pulz. "That's all you know. You ought to travel. Paris for me and a little girl to learn the language from."

"I get keen a fine caballo an' fine saddle an' fine clo's," breathed Perdosa sentimentally. "I ride and the silver jingle and the senorita look!"

"What you want, doctor?" they demanded of the silent nigger.

But the nigger only rolled his eyes and shook his head. By and by he arose and disappeared in the dusk and was no more seen.

"D—fool!" muttered Handy Solomon. "Well, here's to crime!"

He drank a deep cup of the raw rum and staggered back to his seat on the sands.

"I am not a man-o'-war, nor a privateer," said he.

Blow high, blow low; what care we! But I am a jolly pirate, and I'm sailing for my fun."

Down on the coast of the high Barbaree—

he sang. "We'll land in Valparaiso and we'll go every man his way, and we'll sink the old Laughing Lass so deep the mermaids can't find her."

Thrackles piled on more wood, and the fire leaped high.

"Let's get after 'em," said he.

"Tomorrow's jest 's good," muttered Pulz. "Let's hav' 'nother drink."

"We'll stay here 'n see if our of-frien' Percy don't show up," said Handy Solomon. He threw back his head and roared forth a volume of sound toward the dim stars.

"Broadside to broadside the gallant ships did lay."

Blow high, blow low; what care we! Till the jolly man-o'-war shot the pirate's mast away."

Down on the coast of the high Barbaree—

I saw near me a live coal dislodged from the fire when Thrackles had

At the edge of the wash I could make out something prone, dim, limp. He thrown on the armful of wood. An idea came to me. I hitched myself to the spark and laid across it the rope with which my wrists were tied. This,

AN M. D. ON KIDNEY DISEASE.

Writing on kidney disease, the medical term for which is Nephritis, Dr. J. W. Chismond says in the "MEDICAL BRIEF:"

"In its incipency it is as curable as any malady that the system is heir to."

"IN ITS SECONDARY STAGE WE POSSESS NO SPECIFIC FOR ITS RAVAGES."

Where does that leave the kidney medicines you have been taking?

And just as we have said over and over, it doesn't make much difference what you call kidney trouble, if it fastens, physicians and druggists have had no successful treatment for it. True, it commonly gets well at first, but if it does not, it enters the second stage that was incurable up to the discovery of Fulton's Renal Compound, which is the first thing known to reduce inflammation in kidney tissues.

When does the second stage commence? Dr. Chismond says: "IT DEVELOPS ON UNCONSCIOUSLY IT IS AS A RULE FAR ADVANCED BEFORE IT IS DISCOVERED."

In view of these acknowledged facts, people with kidney trouble should do some very serious thinking before taking futile kidney medicines under which the kidney deaths have risen to over 170 per day. Even if the inflammation is in the first stage, a course of futile medicine is delay that develops the very condition that Dr. Chismond says is "irreparable," and that was irreparable up to the date of Fulton's beneficial discovery.

If you have kidney trouble, either starting or seated, how can there be any question about your taking the only known specific for inflammation of the kidneys, which, incipient or chronic, is the real difficulty with kidney troubled people.

behind my back, was not easy to accomplish, and twice I turned my wrists before I succeeded. Fortunately I was at the edge of the illumination and behind the group. I turned over on my side so that my back was toward the fire. Then rapidly I cast loose my ankle lashings. Thus I was free, and selecting a moment when universal attention was turned toward the rum barrel I rolled over a small line, got to my hands and knees and crept away.

Through the coarse grass I crept thus to the very entrance of the arroyo, then rose to my feet. In the middle distance the fire leaped red, its glow felt intermittently on the surges rolling in. The men staggered or lay prone, either as gigantic silhouettes or as tattered demagogues, pointed by the light. The keg stood solid and substantial, the hub about which reeled the orgy. At the edge of the wash I could make out something prone, dim, limp, thrown constantly in new positions of weariness as the water ebbed and flowed beneath it, now an arm thrown out, now cast back, as though old Scrooge slept feverishly. The drunkards were getting noisy. Handy Solomon still reeled o' the verses of his song. The others joined in, faithfully off the key or punctuated the performance by wild staccato yells.

"Their coffin was their ship, and their grave it was the sea."

Blow high, blow low; what care we! And the quarter that we gave them was to sink them in the sea."

Down on the coast of the high Barbaree—

belloved Handy Solomon.

I turned and plunged into the cool darkness of the canyon.

Agreed Verdict.

After the evidence had been heard in the case of the Walsh Manufacturing company against the Paducah Coopers company, the jury was withdrawn and by agreement a verdict of $3,500 for the plaintiff was rendered, each side paying its own cost. The suit was to recover $4,500 claimed to be due the plaintiff company for installing a dry kiln, which the defendant refused to accept, claiming the kiln would not dry green lumber as guaranteed. The Walsh company was represented by Attorneys George N. Monroe, of Pittsburg, and D. G. Park, of Paducah. J. B. Walsh and C. F. Williams, of Pittsburg, attended the trial. Attorneys Moquott, Berry and Corbett, of Paducah, represented the coopers company.

A verdict for the defendant was rendered in the case of John A. Gregory against the Hillman Land & Iron company, of Lyon county. The judgment was rendered by default, the plaintiff failing to enter appearance. The suit was to recover $10,000 for the death of William Gregory, who was drowned from a raft while employed by the Hillman company and was brought in the Lyon county circuit court. The defendant filed a suit to transfer the case to the federal court, to which the plaintiff did not answer and the judgment secured today will be pleaded as a bar when the case is called in the state court at Eddyville next month. Attorney C. C. Grassham, of Paducah, represented the Hillman company.

IMPORTANT DECISION

Case of much interest was tried last Tuesday before Judge Emery, where George Ficklin, of this city, was charged with selling intoxicating liquors, and the evidence showed he sold Dr. Fizz, Cremo and Vivo, prepared by A. M. Lacyson & Co., and the proof all went to show these beverages were non-intoxicating, and the case was dismissed, as no violation of the law could be proven.

The decision of the court will act favorably with the sale of Dr. Fizz, Vivo and Cremo, which are prepared and sold by A. M. Lacyson & Co., of this city.

VREELAND BILL GOES TO TABLE

House Committee Disposed of Measure.

Long Argument Made by Vreeland in Support of His Bill—Members of Committee Said

ALDRICH BILL IN DISGUISE.

Washington April 21.—The house committee on banking and currency voted to lay on the table the financial bill offered by Representative Vreeland, of New York, as a substitute for the Aldrich bill and decided to report favorably on the bill recently introduced by Chairman Fowler, providing for a currency commission to consist of forty-three members, 11 members of the senate, 11 members of the house and 21 others, who must be citizens of the United States.

The action of the committee was taken late in the afternoon after a meeting lasting all day. Vreeland appeared before the committee and made a strong argument in favor of his bill, saying that he thought it would be criminal negligence for congress to adjourn without passing some measure of protection in the event of another panic this fall. He did not, however, think a panic was imminent. Vreeland said his bill was an emergency measure only, and he favored the appointment of a currency commission to consider a permanent banking and currency law.

How to Cure Constipation

Few people altogether escape a disorder of the bowels. You may catch cold, over-eat, over-drink, worry too much, not exercise enough or do a hundred and one other things that result in constipation or costiveness. When the trouble comes it is well to know what to do for it.

In the opinion of thousands there is no better cure for constipation than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which anyone can obtain for 50 cents or $1 at a drug store. We all have constipation occasionally, and the sensible thing to do is to have a bottle of this remedy always in the house. You take it as often as necessary, for example, and when you wake up in the morning at your usual hour it produces its results. Your stomach becomes lighter, your head clearer, your eyes brighter, you feel active and spry once again, your appetite has returned and you are ready to work with enthusiasm and vigor. All this may not have taken more than a dose or two, but it cost not to exceed two or three cents. Can you afford to feel bad when you can feel good for so little?

Dr. Wilson Brown, of Minneapolis, Ill., has no hesitancy in saying that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the greatest of all laxatives and he frankly admits to his patients that if they used it it would be the best cure for occasional or chronic constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, jaundice, sour stomach, lazy liver, flatulence, diarrhea, and similar digestive ailments in old or young. It is a thousand times better than salts or purgative waters, acts gently but surely, is pleasant to the taste, does not grip, and cures permanently.

Go to your druggist and get a 50 cent or $1 bottle and see if our claims are not justified.

FREE TEST—Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying have only to send their name by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old people. A guarantee, guaranteed. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." The product bears purity certificate No. 17, Washington, D. C.

Vreeland, severely criticizing his measure, which, he said, was the Aldrich bill, pure and simple with two sections omitted. The committee then went into executive session to consider the measure. The discussion over it was more protracted than over the Aldrich bill which was tabled last week by unanimous vote. The Vreeland bill had some supporters, and when the vote on the motion to table it was taken, Weeks, of Massachusetts, Burton, of Ohio, and McKinley, of Illinois, voted in the negative.

Those voting in the affirmative were Prince, of Illinois, McMorris, of Michigan, Weems, of Ohio, Waldo, of New York, Hays, of California, Pugo, of Louisiana, Glass, of Virginia, Gillespie, of Texas, James, of Kentucky Crawford, of North Carolina, McHenry, of Pennsylvania, and Chairman Fowler. In the case of the Aldrich bill the committee decided to give no reason to the house for its action simply reporting the measure tabled.

The motion to report the Fowler bill was adopted 10 to 3. Those voting in the negative were Pugo, James and Crawford, while Burton and McHenry voted present.

For cuts, sprains, bruises, rheumatism and all other pains, use McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. First sold in 1852, still the same effective remedy in 1908. Good for man or beast. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

His Reward.
A pushcart on which three pyramids of oranges had been carefully arranged by a swarthy vender was standing near the curb of an uptown street yesterday. It was on the sunny side of the street, and the three signs, "2 cents—8 for 15 cents," "3 cents—12 for 25 cents" and "4 cents—7 for 25 cents," were already attracting attention, when two fighting dogs and a man of peace got mixed up under the wheels. The cart went down and the orange pyramids became bright moving spots on the asphalt. The small boy was present, and helped himself, regardless of price, and scampered—possibly to be on time for the noon meal. One urchin was stopped by a little well-dressed 7-year-old who had seen the accident. He broke away from his father, with whom he was walking, seized hold of the boy and said: "Say, that isn't yours—it's the poor man's. Put it down." A crowd witnessed the act and showed its approval. Not another orange went astray. The father smiled with pride as he led his little son away, but he had only gone a few steps when a boy shouted after him: "Hey, there! Why don't you buy de kid a orange?" And he did.—New York Tribune.

D. A. R. CONGRESS IN THE NATION'S EYE.

Says the Courier-Journal's Washington letter:

"The duds and the Daughters are amongst us again. Such dashing duds! Such distinguished Daughters! And every last lady has a new lid. The annual D. A. R. congress is a hat-trick as well as a patriotic assemblage. It is a meeting of millinery from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Gulf to the Great Lakes. The gallery goes from their porches—only delegates are allowed on the floor, when Mrs. McLean's gavel announces 'they're off,' on Monday—upon an effulgent acre of 'Memory Widows' and a prairie of plumage. The D. A. R. dames and damsels are here in time for the special service for them at St. John's on Easter Sunday, the 19th of April, the date of the battle of Lexington being the significant day with them that determines the week for their annual congress. Mrs. McLean, the affable and approachable, is as busy as a bee with all her preliminary arrangements. She carefully considers every detail of the congress, even to the selection of the young lady pages, an honor distributed with diplomatic caution, the choice to represent as much D. A. R. territory as possible. A strong representation from Kentucky will figure at the D. A. R. congress. The capable state regent, Mrs. Christopher D. Chennault, of Lexington, formerly of Richmond, will arrive at the Ebblitt House, the D. A. R. headquarters, on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Andrew Scanlan, of Richmond, regent of the Boonesboro chapter and most of the Louisville delegation. Mrs. Chennault was the founder of the Boonesboro chapter of Richmond. She is a graceful magnetic woman as brilliantly identified with the U. D. C. matters as with the national organization. Mrs. Donald McLean has placed Mrs. Chennault upon the music committee of the Seventeenth Continental congress, an honor which the loyal regent of the Bluegrass state at the request of the president-general signifies by arranging to have the immortal melody, 'My Old Kentucky Home,' sung at one of the meetings by a beautiful young vocalist of Washington, of proud old Kentucky stock. Mrs. Sallie Marshall Hardy, vice president general from Kentucky, is expected at her usual quarters at the Ebblitt House. Mrs. George H. Wilson, of Louisville, so attractively identified with D. A. R. work at the last congress, the dainty regent of the John Marshall chapter, also arrives in Washington with the Easter lilies on Sunday. Miss Katherine Shelby Todd will be a resident representative from the Isaac Shelby chapter, of Shelbyville. Mrs. John Hamble McDowell, a charter member of the first chapter organized in Madison county, is connected with the Our Flag chapter since her residence in Washington. Mrs. C. D. Cunningham, of Lexington, is here as a delegate to the D. A. R. congress.

"The U. D. C. of the district from the D. A. R. congress will hold a luncheon every day in the vicinity of Continental Memorial Hall, at the historic old Octagon House, where the treaty of Ghent was signed and where President Madison and the dashing Dolly took refuge during the British invasion of 1814. The proceeds will go to swell the Confederate monument fund. Miss Mary Desha, of Kentucky, and Mrs. Ollie James will be of the receiving ladies at an Easter ball to be given at the Arlington by the Dr. E. Lee chapter, U. D. C."

What Is a Candle Power?
Pretty much everyone thinks he knows what a candle power is—the light given by a single candle, of course. As a matter of fact, candles differ as much in luminosity as light-bulbs, oil lamps or fireflies, and a candle power is not one thing, but half a dozen, according to the country where the phrase is used. In Great Britain and the United States the standard light unit is the amount given by a "spermaceti candle, burning up at the rate of 120 grains an hour, with a flame forty-five millimeters high," etc. In France the standard candle is made of stearine, and Germany's candle was, until a few years ago, paraffine. Now the latter country uses the so-called Hefner unit of light, the amount given by a certain form of lamp burning acetate of amyl.

Another lamp standard, called the carcel, was used in France. In this purified rape seed oil is burned. Because of this unsatisfactory international chaos, it is now proposed that our national bureau of standards at Washington take steps to establish a standard international candle, which would be acceptable to at least nine countries. The joint committee of gas and electrical engineers which is urging this standardization declares that the change could be made with very little disturbance of most of the national standards now in existence.—New York Globe.

RHEUMATISM

BODY RACKED WITH PAIN

No other disease causes such wide-spread suffering as Rheumatism. It is a nerve-racking torture, and so thoroughly does it dominate the system, when it becomes entrenched in the blood, that its victims are usually complete slaves to pain. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood brought on by stomach troubles, weak kidneys, indigestion, and a sluggish condition of the system. The natural refuse of the body, instead of passing off through the ordinary channels of waste, is left to sour and ferment in the system because of these irregularities, forming uric acid which is absorbed into the blood, and Rheumatism gets a foothold. As the blood circulates through the body it deposits the acid, irritating substances with which it is saturated, into the different muscles, nerves, tissues and bones. Sharp, biting pains commence, the flesh becomes feverish, swollen and tender, the muscles and joints throb and jerk, and the body is literally racked with pain.

S.S.S.

PURELY VEGETABLE

Plasters, blisters, liniments, etc., can never cure the disease; they relieve the pain, perhaps, temporarily, but do not reach the trouble, which is in the blood. S. S. S. is the proper treatment for Rheumatism. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, and by driving out the poison and acid fluids which are causing the pain, and strengthening and enriching the blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Green River Tobacco Growers Plan of Organization No Part of A. S. of E.

The Owensboro Inquirer says:

The Green River Tobacco Growers' association is a fact. Its organization was effected in one of the greatest meetings of farmers ever held in Owensboro. The morning session was held in the Cha tauqua auditorium where a temporary organization was effected, but the afternoon session was held in the circuit court room into which about 800 men were crowded as closely as they could stand. The meeting was comparatively quiet for such a crowd, and business was transacted with dispatch under expert work of Chairman Berry and Secretaries Moseley and V. P. Staleler.

According to a rule adopted in the morning session a vote was to be taken on the adoption or rejection of the constitution, and President Berry was running on schedule time when, after the reading of the constitution and by-laws by Mr. Staleler, F. K. Moseley insisted upon the reading of the amendment which he had prepared, and which had been recommended by the district A. S. of E.

Objections to Amendment.

S. R. Ewing objected to the Moseley amendment which provided for a plan by which a vote could be taken in every county in the district in April, 1909, when, if by a majority vote, it should be decided wise to join the A. S. of E., the organizations should be merged. He made the point of order that the constitution only was to be voted upon. His point was sustained and a vote was taken on the original constitution. The vote was almost unanimous in favor of its adoption, only about twenty-five hands of the 700 or 800 in the court room going up in opposition to it.

After this vote was announced a vote was taken on the adoption of the proposed new constitution and by-laws. Again the vote was practically unanimous, only a few standing when the opposing vote was called for.

The Amendment Again.

Chairman Berry ruled that while the amendment was out of order attached to the constitution which had been submitted by the conference committees he would permit the taking of the sense of the meeting on the amendment separate. This brought it before the house again.

John Cullen spoke against the amendment. He thought it unnecessary and liable to create a bad impression. He added, "I don't ask these people to get into our net. I say we have the home people and the independents with us today and let us keep them with us if we can. We can do it best by defeating this amendment."

J. P. Foster, of Ohio county, moved that the amendment be tabled. J. O. Madden, of Hancock county, seconded the motion, and it was tabled by an overwhelming vote.

Election Proceeded With.

John E. Minnett, of Hancock county, moved that the election of officers be proceeded with. J. P. Foster, of Ohio county, seconded the motion. Explanations were made by F. K. Moseley, T. S. Cope, S. R. Ewing and J. B. Obenchain, and then the Minnett motion was carried and nominations for president were declared in order. It soon became manifest that the vast crowd was overwhelmingly for Henry Berry. He was placed in nomination in short and pithy speeches by several from counties other than Davies, and cordial seconds were given by Davies county voices. V. P. Staleler, of McLean county, took the vote and it was unanimous.

Mr. Berry spoke modestly and gratefully in returning his thanks, and promised his best efforts in behalf of the cause.

S. R. Ewing Vice President. J. B. Obenchain, of Hancock county, placed John Cullen in nomination for vice president, but he was decided ineligible, as he is an officer in another tobacco organization.

Geo. F. Lancaster, of Hancock county, made an excellent plea for S. R. Ewing, and nominated him for vice president. He hit the popular chord, and Mr. Ewing was chosen vice president by acclamation.

Governing Board Chosen. The various counties were next invited to caucus and select their members of the governing board. They scattered to different rooms or to different parts of the circuit court room, and soon the following members of the board were reported.

Davies county—T. S. Cope, Joe B. Crabtree, G. A. Weller, Hiram Marksberry and J. A. Jameson.

McLean county—John Cullen and E. B. McEuen.

Ohio county—Joseph Bellmain and S. F. Whiteley.

Hancock county—Henry Shafer and H. D. Brown.

Breckinridge county—B. A. Whittinghill and D. C. Moorman.

The recommendations of the county conferences were received and ratified by the general body. Spencer county, Ind., was to have had two places on the board, and Warrick county, Ind., one under the rules adopted, but the delegates from those counties stated that they were limited by instructions from their county A. S. of E. unions, and they would not name members of the board. However, it is expected that those counties will yet gladly accept the places tendered them on the board and become a useful part of the association.

Average Limitation.

On motion of J. B. Obenchain, of Hancock county, it was resolved that the body recommend to board of control that they take prompt steps to make the 10,000 hills to the hand regulation effective.

It was agreed that the board of control meet at 1 p. m. on April 23, at the Columbus hotel for organization, and then another tobacco organization was fully launched, and the meeting adjourned.

Surprise—and Conquest

THE opening of our Special Exploitation Display and Demonstration was a triumph—a complete, absolute triumph! From the opening hours of the morning until the store closed in the evening our Corset Section was thronged with delighted women—and not a single one of this enthusiastic throng failed to be very strongly impressed with the novel and exclusive features of

IRRESISTIBLE and Gossard
CORSETS
"They Lace In Front"

They Lace In Front

The single fact that they lace in front makes them superior to all other corsets. The principle of construction is right—right for grace—right for health—right for style.

They Lace In Front

These corsets sell at the reasonable price of $5 and up. Economical women will find that one Gossard corset at $5 is actually cheaper than 5 ordinary corsets at $2 each.

Every figure—any figure—will fit the "Gossard" Corset. It emphasizes individuality, being the foundation and permitting the final touch of exclusive character to either simple or elaborate toilette. As the most intimate accessory of woman's apparel it meets and joins the wearer's figure in quite a personal way, associating itself so closely and finely that the "Gossard" and its wearer are one. The regard of the wearer for her "Gossard" Corset comes as near true friendship as can exist between animate beings and inanimate objects.

For the woman of generous proportions—the woman over 140—when hips need a refining line, with waist wanting shapeliness, and bust correction necessary, we have the model—one model that will do all these. If one only, either one, of these difficulties is to be improved, we have that model, too. For mademoiselle or madam of slight or slender figure, or just beyond the pale of either, be it a rounded effect that you require, a slight restraint, a direct line for emphasis, a curve for harmony, that model we have conjured for your need; evolved it, not by chance, but by the calculating plans of science, abetted by a wide experience that taught the need.

The Most Beautiful Corset in the World

In corsets, as in the production of anything combining art and beauty, there must be one most beautiful. The Venus de Medici, standing for all ages as the most beautiful representative of the female form, is an ideal figure, a composite of the measurements of many women with as near perfect forms as could be found. As the sculptor worked, harmonizing many beautiful curves, until the one perfect form was chiseled from the marble, so worked Mmes. Margaine La Croix and Foulde de Grasse, measuring here and there, taking this curve and that line, combining for "Irresistible" and "Gossard" all the beauties of figure in the most perfect models of Paris, until they produced one of the most beautiful corsets. And so, too, does every woman who wears this unapproachable corset achieve a beautiful figure, for your lines yield without discomfort and follow the harmonious outline of this perfect production. Can you afford to miss our Special Exploitation Display and Demonstration? Remember, it is under the personal supervision of Miss Carrie Brown, the personal representative of The H. W. Gossard Co., who will be with us only during this week. Come to our Corset Section tomorrow if you can.

Oxford Style That Is Lasting

To be always faultlessly shod is easier than many believe. The whole secret lies in getting shoes that retain their style. Probably the single feature that has made most friends for our shoes is their permanent trimness and good looks. Our Oxfords are made over foot-form lasts that afford perfect freedom to every muscle. The toes lie flat without any huddling or cramping. They need no "breaking in" and never wrinkle or burst out.
